Project Summary

Foodcare is an Erasmus+ project approved in the YOUTH field. By using Social Media, we want to impact young generations to adopt a more eco-friendly approach in their daily-life with a special focus to behavioral nutrition attitudes. Foodcare wants to:

To encourage healthy life-style and cultural identity by promoting nutritional trends that respects local biodiversity

To raise awareness about behavioral nutritional change towards environmental-friendly food

To engage youngsters and youth workers to become changing agents for an active citizenship

To promote social entrepreneurship in a circular economy that refers to food along its value chain addressed to the EU Green Deal initiatives
